

Webinar Leads: Call Scripts

Three types of webinar lead, three scripts. Work the whole list within 3 working days (2-3 calls + a text each).

Order to work them (day after the webinar)

- 1 Booked calls happening today
- 2 Booked calls not yet confirmed
- 3 Booked but not reached after the webinar
- 4 Attended but didn't book
- 5 Registered but didn't attend
- 6 Long-term nurture

A. Booked a call on the webinar: they book with YOU

Webinar bookings are a discovery video call with you (not Freeman). Watch the webinar yourself, because Freeman sometimes changes the pitch. These are your best leads: they sat through 2 hours and know they need £6-8k.

Straight after the webinar: quick thank-you call

"Hey [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. Thanks so much for staying on tonight and booking in. I just wanted to say thank you properly. I'll see you on our call on [day]."

No answer → acknowledgement text: thank you for joining the webinar and booking a call, I'll be in touch soon.

Day of your discovery call

Reminder text with the video link. Laptop is fine. On a phone they need the Google Meet app.

The discovery video call (20-30 mins, camera on)

"Hi [Name]! Could you pop your camera on? I like to see who I'm talking to."

"What did you think of the webinar? What was your biggest takeaway?"

"What's got you interested in property, and why now?"

Then the same qualification as VSL: location · work · experience · goal (go deeper) · pain points · funds + liquid · decision maker · "ready to take action if it makes sense, or window shopping?". Title your note "Discovery video call notes". Don't record these calls.

Qualified → book with Freeman

- Lead → New Opportunity and add an opportunity with the call date.
- If his call is days away, check in every 2-3 days: Trustpilot, testimonials, "are you getting excited?". E.g. call on Monday → message Friday with videos for the weekend → Monday morning check.
- Before his call: "Notes for Freeman" note.
- After a sale: congratulate on WhatsApp + task a few days before the next instalment.

B. Attended but didn't book

5-8 minutes. Find out why they didn't book, then only book if they're serious.

"Hey [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. I saw you joined Freeman's webinar on [topic], so I just wanted to check in. Did you get value from it?"

"Was there any particular reason you didn't book a call at the end?"

"Was there anything you were unsure about?"

"Are you still keen on getting support with [rent-to-rent / Airbnb]?"

If yes → light qualify (why, goal, timeline, money, liquid, decision maker) → then:

"Based on what you've said, a call with Freeman could be really useful. It's to look at your situation and see if he's the right fit. I only want to book it in if you're serious about taking action and happy to watch a short video beforehand. Does that sound fair?"

C. Registered but didn't attend

"Hey [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. I saw you registered for Freeman's webinar on [topic], but I'm not sure if you managed to make it live. Did you get a chance to join?"

If no:

"No worries at all. You missed a really useful one, he broke down [topic]. I'll send you the training so you can catch up. Are you still interested in how [rent-to-rent / Airbnb] could work for you?"

If interested → light qualify → book or route (see Routing sheet). If not → YouTube nurture, no pressure.

Lock in the show (don't hang up until every box is ticked)

- ✓ Invite accepted while you're on the phone
- ✓ Google Meet: app downloaded if they're on their phone
- ✓ Quiet place, not driving, not at work without privacy, enough time set aside
- ✓ Partner / decision maker joining if they're involved
- ✓ Prep video sent and they've agreed to watch it

"Can you see the invite? Could you accept it now while I'm on, so the slot's secured? Unconfirmed calls can get cancelled."

"It's on Google Meet. If you're joining on your phone, download the Meet app before so there's no faff."

"I'm sending you a short video from Freeman. Watch it before the call and jot down any questions, so he can focus on your situation rather than the basics."

"Perfect. So that's [day] at [time] on Google Meet. Invite accepted, somewhere quiet, video watched. It's a proper next-step conversation with Freeman, so I want you to get the most out of it."

After booking: reminder sequence

When	What to send
Straight after the call	Booking confirmation text + prep video
24 hours before	"Hey [Name], just confirming you're still good for your call with Freeman tomorrow at [time]. Make sure you've watched the video I sent, accepted the invite and you're joining from somewhere quiet."
Morning of	"Morning [Name], looking forward to your call with Freeman today at [time]. Have you had a chance to watch the video?"
1-2 hours before	"Quick reminder, your call with Freeman is coming up shortly. Make sure you're somewhere quiet and ready to go through your goals properly."

Tip

Don't over-contact. Four clean touches is plenty. Log each one in Close.
