

DIGITAL PROMPT LIBRARY

100 AI Prompts for Local Service Businesses

A ready-to-use prompt library for salons, contractors, cleaners, trainers, and every local business owner who needs marketing help but doesn't have a marketing team.

100 Prompts · 10 Categories · Copy & Paste Ready

Copy a prompt, paste it into ChatGPT/Claude, fill in the [bracketed] parts with your business details, and get a usable first draft in seconds. Every prompt in this pack has been written to need zero prompt-engineering skill — just fill and go.

1. Google Business Profile & Local SEO (10 prompts)

1. Write a Google Business Profile description for [business name], a [business type] in [city], under 750 characters, highlighting [top 3 services] and [what makes you different].
2. Write 5 Google Business Profile posts announcing [seasonal promotion/new service], each under 300 characters with a clear call to action.
3. Generate 10 relevant Google Business Profile categories for a [business type] — primary category first, then secondary options.
4. Write a response to this 5-star review: "[paste review]" — warm, specific, under 60 words, no generic phrases like "we appreciate your business."
5. Write a professional, de-escalating response to this negative review: "[paste review]" — acknowledge the issue, avoid admitting legal fault, invite them to contact you directly.
6. List 15 local SEO keywords a [business type] in [city] should target, split into "high intent / ready to book" and "research phase."
7. Write meta title and meta description tags (under 60/155 characters) for the homepage of a [business type] website targeting [city].
8. Write FAQ content (6 questions) for a [business type] website that targets common "near me" search questions.
9. Suggest 5 photo categories [business type] should upload to Google Business Profile to maximize local ranking, with a one-line shot list for each.
10. Write a "Why choose us" section (120 words) for [business name] comparing against generic competitors, without naming any competitor directly.

2. Social Media Content (15 prompts)

1. Write 7 days of Instagram caption ideas for a [business type], mixing behind-the-scenes, client results, and educational content.
2. Turn this client testimonial into a 30-second video script with hook, body, and CTA: "[paste testimonial]"
3. Write 5 TikTok/Reels hook lines (first 3 seconds) for a [business type] showing [specific service/process].
4. Write an Instagram carousel outline (6 slides) explaining "[topic the business is expert in]" in plain language for a local audience.
5. Write 3 versions of a "we're open" or "book now" Instagram Story with a poll/question sticker idea for engagement.
6. Generate a content calendar theme for each day of the week for a [business type] Instagram account (e.g. Monday = tip, Wednesday = transformation, Friday = booking reminder).
7. Write a caption for a before/after photo post that doesn't sound like every other before/after caption.
8. Write 5 poll questions for Instagram Stories that a [business type] audience would actually answer.
9. Write a script for a 60-second "day in the life at [business name]" video, timestamped every 10 seconds.
10. Write 3 captions responding to a trending audio/format for a [business type] account — keep them adaptable, not tied to one specific trend.
11. Write a LinkedIn post (for B2B-facing local services like contractors, cleaners, consultants) sharing a lesson learned from a recent job, without naming the client.
12. Write 5 comment-bait questions to post alongside content to boost engagement for a [business type] account.
13. Write an Instagram bio (150 characters) for [business name] that includes what you do, where, and a CTA.
14. Write a "meet the team" post script introducing [employee name], their role, and one fun fact.
15. Write a giveaway post caption and rules for a [business type] running a local giveaway to grow followers.

3. Email & SMS Marketing (12 prompts)

1. Write a welcome email for new [business type] clients after their first booking, warm tone, under 150 words.
2. Write a re-engagement email to past clients who haven't booked in [timeframe], offering [incentive].
3. Write a 3-email "why haven't you booked yet" sequence for someone who visited the website but didn't book.
4. Write an SMS appointment reminder (under 160 characters) with a reschedule link placeholder.
5. Write a referral-request email asking happy clients to refer a friend, offering [incentive] for both parties.
6. Write a review-request email sent 24 hours after service, short, with a direct link placeholder to leave a Google review.
7. Write a seasonal promotion email announcing [offer] with urgency (limited spots/time) without sounding pushy.
8. Write a "we've moved / new hours / policy change" announcement email that keeps the tone reassuring, not corporate.
9. Write a birthday/anniversary email offering [discount] to past clients.
10. Write a win-back SMS for a client who cancelled and never rebooked.
11. Write an email announcing a new service or product line, framed around a client problem it solves.
12. Write a short "thank you for your business this year" email to send in December, no upsell, pure appreciation.

4. Sales & Booking Conversations (10 prompts)

1. Write 5 responses to the DM "how much do you charge?" that gather more info before quoting a price.
2. Write a script for handling the objection "that's more than I expected to pay" without discounting immediately.
3. Write a follow-up message for a lead who requested a quote but went quiet for [timeframe].
4. Write a script explaining [service] to a first-time client who has never used a service like this before.
5. Write 3 ways to upsell [add-on service] during a booking conversation without sounding pushy.
6. Write a message confirming a booking that also primes the client for a good review afterward.
7. Write a script for calmly handling a same-day cancellation request per [business]'s cancellation policy.
8. Write a message to send a client who ghosted after a great first session/appointment.
9. Write 3 opening lines for cold outreach to [target customer type] that don't sound like a form letter.
10. Write a script explaining a price increase to existing clients that keeps them from feeling blindsided.

5. Website & Content Copy (10 prompts)

1. Write a homepage hero headline and subheadline for [business name], a [business type] in [city].
2. Write an "About" page (200 words) for [business name] that tells the origin story and the owner's motivation, not just a resume.
3. Write 3 service page descriptions for [service names], each focused on the client outcome, not just the process.
4. Write a pricing page intro paragraph that frames [business]'s prices as an investment, not a cost.
5. Write 5 client testimonial pull-quotes (short, punchy) from this longer review: "[paste review]"
6. Write a 404 error page message with personality for [business name]'s website.
7. Write a "Book Now" button's surrounding microcopy (the sentence right above/below the CTA) to reduce booking hesitation.
8. Write an email signature for [owner name] at [business name] that includes a soft CTA to book or follow on social.
9. Write 3 headline variations for a [service] landing page to A/B test against each other.
10. Write alt text for [number] product/service photos described here: "[describe photos]" — descriptive, under 125 characters each.

6. Paid Ads (8 prompts)

1. Write 5 Facebook/Instagram ad headlines (under 40 characters) for [service/offer].
2. Write 3 ad primary text variations (under 125 characters) promoting [offer] to [target audience] in [city].
3. Write a Google Search ad (3 headlines, 2 descriptions) for "[service] near me" intent searches.
4. Write an ad script for a 15-second video ad promoting [offer], including a text-overlay outline.
5. Write 3 audience-targeting angle ideas for [business type] running local Facebook ads (e.g. new movers, life-event targeting).
6. Write ad copy retargeting people who visited the website but didn't book, referencing urgency without discounting.
7. Write a Google ad extension (sitelinks) set: 4 short links with descriptions for [business]'s main service categories.
8. Write 3 versions of a "first-time client offer" ad angle for [business type].

7. Reviews & Reputation (8 prompts)

1. Write a script the front desk/team can say in person to ask happy clients for a Google review.
2. Write 3 short review-request templates to text vs. email vs. hand out on a printed card.
3. Write a response template for a review that's positive but mentions one small complaint.
4. Write a process (as a numbered checklist) for how staff should escalate an unhappy client before it becomes a bad review.
5. Write a social media post highlighting 3 recent 5-star reviews without making it feel like bragging.
6. Write a script for calling a client who left a 1–2 star review to resolve the issue offline.
7. Write copy for a printed "leave us a review" table tent or business card insert.
8. Write a monthly "reviews roundup" post format the business can reuse every month.

8. Operations & Internal (7 prompts)

1. Write a client onboarding checklist for a new [business type] customer's first visit/project.
2. Write a staff training script for how to greet and check in a client in a way that matches [business]'s brand voice.
3. Write a no-show policy explanation to send clients when booking, firm but not cold.
4. Write an internal FAQ doc answering the 10 most common questions a new employee at [business name] would ask.
5. Write a script for training staff on how to mention add-on services naturally during a job.
6. Write a short survey (5 questions) to send clients after service to gather feedback before it becomes a public review.
7. Write a standard operating procedure outline for [a repeatable task in the business, e.g. opening/closing checklist].

9. Seasonal & Promotional Campaigns (8 prompts)

1. Write a campaign concept (name, offer, 3 content pieces) for a [season/holiday] promotion for [business type].
2. Write a "12 days of [holiday]" mini-campaign with a daily post idea for each day.
3. Write copy for a limited-time bundle offer combining [service A] and [service B].
4. Write a "new year, new [goal]" campaign angle tying [business type]'s service to a common January resolution.
5. Write a slow-season promotion designed to fill [specific weekday/ time slot] that's usually empty.
6. Write a loyalty program explanation (simple point/visit-based) for [business name].
7. Write an anniversary/milestone celebration post (e.g. "5 years in business") with a thank-you offer attached.
8. Write a "refer a friend" campaign name and one-paragraph explainer.

10. Strategy & Positioning (12 prompts)

1. Write a one-paragraph brand positioning statement for [business name] answering: who it's for, what makes it different, and why that matters.
2. List 5 possible business names/taglines for a new [business type] launching in [city], each with a one-line rationale.
3. Write a SWOT-style analysis prompt input: given [business description], list strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats specific to the local market.
4. Write 3 ways [business type] could bundle services into a package that increases average order value.
5. Write a competitor-comparison talking point (without naming competitors) for when a client asks "why you over anyone else?"
6. Write an ideal-client profile (persona) for [business type] in [city] based on this description: "[describe typical client]".
7. Write 5 partnership ideas with complementary local businesses (not direct competitors) for cross-promotion.
8. Write a one-page "annual marketing plan" outline for a [business type] with a monthly theme for each of the 12 months.
9. Write a script for a 60-second elevator pitch introducing [business name] at a local networking event.
10. Write 3 low-cost, high-effort-payoff marketing ideas for a [business type] with a $0 ad budget this month.
11. Write a plan for turning [business]'s single best case study into 5 different pieces of content across different formats.
12. Write a quarterly review prompt: given [business]'s results this quarter (bookings, revenue, top service), summarize what worked, what didn't, and 3 priorities for next quarter.

Tip: save your favorite prompts as Custom Instructions or a Notion database so you're never starting from a blank page again. Pair this pack with the Life OS Notion template for a full content + ops system.