

VSL Leads: Call Script

They watched Freeman's training and applied or booked. Call within 5 minutes (15 max). Call length 8-15 minutes. You're not selling: confirm fit, route, prepare, lock in the show.

Before you dial (30 seconds)

- Open the lead in Close. Read all 10 form answers, especially Q6 (dream life), Q7 (timeline), Q8 (blocker), Q10 (funding).
- Check notes and past calls. Never re-ask something they've already told you. Confirm and dig instead.
- Pick your hook: the one thing from their answers you'll open with.
- New app just landed? Claim it with ☑ in #1-new-apps, then give it a few minutes: many book a call straight after. Check if they've booked before you dial.
- Out of hours? Send the acknowledgement text now ("thanks for taking the time to watch, I'll be in touch shortly") and set a task for 9-10am.
- Booked calls come first. They need videos and a fit check before Freeman's slot.

1. Opener

"Hi [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. I saw you booked a call after watching Freeman's training on building an Airbnb / rent-to-rent business. I just wanted to introduce myself, make sure you're all set for the call, and get to know where you're at a bit. Have I caught you at an OK time?"

Bad time? "No worries. When's better, later today or tomorrow morning?" Lock a specific time, log it, hang up.

2. Rapport (1-2 mins, keep it short)

"What made you book in?"

"What stood out to you from the training?"

"How long have you been looking into property?"

3. Application check (2-4 mins)

"I've got your application in front of me. I'll just run through a couple of bits so we know the call's the right next step for you."

Confirm: where they live · job / situation · experience · goal · timeline.

4. Money (with tact)

"You put around [Q10 amount] on the form. Is that sitting there ready, or would you look at a payment plan or credit if it was the right fit?"

"And if Freeman can genuinely help you and it makes sense, is that something you'd be comfortable investing in?"

If they put “under £5,000”: “Roughly how much, ballpark?” Then route them using the Routing sheet.

5. Go one level deeper (this is what makes people show up)

“You wrote [their Q6 answer]. What does that actually look like for you day to day?”

“Why now? What's changed?”

“What's stopped you starting before?”

“If nothing changed in the next 12 months, how would you feel about that?”

Tip

Listen more than you talk. If they say “I'm not ready”, “I need to think” or “I don't have enough money”, don't accept it straight away. Find out why.

6. Decision maker

“Is it just you making the decision, or is a partner or family member involved? If they are, it's best they join so you both hear the same thing.”

7. Position the call

“Just so you know, it's not a general chat. Freeman looks at your situation, what you want to achieve, and whether he can actually help. If it's a fit, he'll show you exactly how.”

8. Ready now or window shopping? (most VSL bookings fail here)

“Once you're on the call with Freeman, if everything makes sense, is this something you're ready to take action on now, or are you more looking for information at this stage?”

Info only? Don't keep the booking. Protect Freeman's diary:

“No problem at all. The call with Freeman is very much a strategy call to move forward, so let's pause that booking for now. I'll send you some info first. How long do you need to watch it? Then I'll give you a ring.”

Cancel the booking → opportunity to New Deal Lost (note “cancelled: info only”) → send videos → task to reconnect → qualify before rebooking.

Don't

Overwhelm them. £7k+ leads: talk rent-to-rent only. Only bring in management if funds are lower or they're nervous about investing. Don't downsell if you don't need to.

If they push back: “I've already booked, why all the questions?”

“Totally get it. Freeman's only one person and can't take everyone's call, so this is just to check the call's the right next step for you and share some info so you get the most out of it.”

Lock in the show (don't hang up until every box is ticked)

- ✓ Invite accepted while you're on the phone
- ✓ Google Meet: app downloaded if they're on their phone
- ✓ Quiet place, not driving, not at work without privacy, enough time set aside
- ✓ Partner / decision maker joining if they're involved
- ✓ Prep video sent and they've agreed to watch it

"Can you see the invite? Could you accept it now while I'm on, so the slot's secured? Unconfirmed calls can get cancelled."

"It's on Google Meet. If you're joining on your phone, download the Meet app before so there's no faff."

"I'm sending you a short video from Freeman. Watch it before the call and jot down any questions, so he can focus on your situation rather than the basics."

"Perfect. So that's [day] at [time] on Google Meet. Invite accepted, somewhere quiet, video watched. It's a proper next-step conversation with Freeman, so I want you to get the most out of it."

If they don't answer (Antoinette's sequence)

Attempt	Text after the missed call	Then
Out of hours	Acknowledgement: thanks for watching, I'll be in touch shortly	Task 9–10am
Call 1	VSL follow-up 1: tried you about your application, quick call to understand your situation and goals and how Freeman can support you. When can I call?	Task later today / tomorrow
Call 2	VSL follow-up 2: "Have I got the right person?"	Task next day
Call 3	Last message: I've reached out a few times. No worries if it's not for you, but if you are interested let me know and we'll pick up where we left off.	Task to check next day
No reply	–	NGMI (door left open)

Wrong number? Email them asking for another number.

"Voicemail: Hey [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. I saw you booked a call and just wanted to confirm the details and send over some prep before your session. I'll drop you a text now."

"Text: Hey [Name], it's Tye from Freeman's team. I saw you booked a call after watching Freeman's training. Just want to quickly confirm it and send over some prep. Let me know when you're free for a quick call."

After booking: reminder sequence

When	What to send
Straight after the call	Booking confirmation text + prep video
24 hours before	"Hey [Name], just confirming you're still good for your call with Freeman tomorrow at [time]. Make sure you've watched the video I sent, accepted the invite and you're joining from somewhere quiet."
Morning of	"Morning [Name], looking forward to your call with Freeman today at [time]. Have you had a chance to watch the video?"
1-2 hours before	"Quick reminder, your call with Freeman is coming up shortly. Make sure you're somewhere quiet and ready to go through your goals properly."

Tip

Don't over-contact. Four clean touches is plenty. Log each one in Close.

Close note after the call

Lead source · situation/job · experience · goal · why now · timeline · capital · liquid y/n · payment plan needed y/n · decision maker · main pain · route · video sent/watched · invite accepted y/n · Meet ok y/n · quiet place y/n · rapport notes · next action.

If it's not in Close, it didn't happen. WhatsApp chats too: paste them in as a note.

Before Freeman's call: "Notes for Freeman"

Copy your notes into a new note titled "Notes for Freeman". Put funds and goals at the top, then add personal rapport bits (e.g. new baby, family in property) and remove your own opinions. Or run /freeman-notes [name].
